

Write a 2-page math autobiography, the story of your personal history with mathematics. Please include

- a list of the math courses you took in high school and college;
- what's hard and what's easy in mathematics for you;
- positive/negative events in your mathematical career;
- your major, career goals, and how this class could contribute.